

SIGHT WORD ACTIVITY

Musical Sight Words

Grab a stack of index cards or pieces of paper and write sight words that your child is working is on.

Set each card on a chair or on the floor within the room.

Turn on the music and encourage dancing and movement. When the music stops, your child should sit or stand on a word and read it. Once that card has been read it can be collected by the person controlling the music.

