Reading Comprehension

Directions: Read the paragraph and answer the questions about pandas. Do not answer in one-or-two words but in complete sentences.

Pandas

Pandas live in the bamboo forests in the mountains of China. They are exceptionally large animals. They are black and white. The panda's have oily fur which is used to protect them. The pandas spend their time eating bamboo leaves and stems and drinking water. They like to climb trees and can be very playful. Pandas like to play, tumble, roll and do somersaults and headstands. Pandas are not allowed to be hunted or trapped. I would love a panda for a pet, but I cannot, so I only have a stuffed toy panda.
