

LITERACY ACTIVITY

Start a nature journal by getting outside and exploring the outdoors and animals around you. This is a great opportunity when you are in the bush. Each time you find a different type of plant (tree) or animal, sketch it in your journal or notebook and write what you observe about it. Keep your journal going for as long as you can.

