

Types of Sentences

Hint:

Directions: Write on the blank space whether the sentence is a declarative, interrogative, imperative or exclamatory.

A declarative sentence is used to state information and ends in a period.

An exclamatory sentence expresses emotion and ends in an exclamation mark. An imperative sentence gives a command or makes a request and ends with a perio exclamation mark. 1. Do you like to play hockey?	! d or exclamation mark. 1. Do you like to play hockey? 2. I love music! 3. Stop doing that! 4. When will we go in the Bush? 5. Happy Birthday! 6. The movie was so exciting! 7. Don't run! 8. My brother killed his first goose! 9. Did you have bannock with supper? 10. I miss going to school. 11. I will have fun in the bush. 12. Close the door. 13. Turn of the TV! 14. Are the geese flying north or south?	d or
1. Do you like to play hockey?
 Do you like to play hockey?
 I love music!
 Stop doing that! When will we go in the Bush? Happy Birthday! The movie was so exciting! Don't run! My brother killed his first goose! Did you have bannock with supper? I miss going to school. I will have fun in the bush. Close the door. Turn of the TV! Are the geese flying north or south?
 4. When will we go in the Bush? 5. Happy Birthday! 6. The movie was so exciting! 7. Don't run! 8. My brother killed his first goose! 9. Did you have bannock with supper? 10. I miss going to school. 11. I will have fun in the bush. 12. Close the door. 13. Turn of the TV! 14. Are the geese flying north or south?
 5. Happy Birthday!
 6. The movie was so exciting! 7. Don't run! 8. My brother killed his first goose! 9. Did you have bannock with supper? 10. I miss going to school. 11. I will have fun in the bush. 12. Close the door. 13. Turn of the TV! 14. Are the geese flying north or south?
7. Don't run!
8. My brother killed his first goose! 9. Did you have bannock with supper? 10. I miss going to school. 11. I will have fun in the bush. 12. Close the door. 13. Turn of the TV! 14. Are the geese flying north or south?
9. Did you have bannock with supper?
10. I miss going to school
11. I will have fun in the bush
12. Close the door
13. Turn of the TV!
14. Are the geese flying north or south?
15 Llovo Fastori
15. I love Easter!
Muito a declarativa contanas
Write a declarative sentence:
	_
	_
	_
Write an interrogative sentence:
	_
	- -

