

LITERACY WORKSHEET

Using “Good” or “Well”

Directions: Fill in the blanks with the correct word, good or well. Then write your own sentences using the words good and well.

Hint:

Good is used to describe a noun, like an adjective. (My sandwich was very good.)

Well is used to describe a verb, like an adverb. It can also be used when referring to good health. (You swim very well. I hope your family is well.)

1. You are a _____ choice for the hockey team.
2. The goose cooking over the open fire looks _____ to eat.
3. They sang _____ at the concert.
4. My tea did not taste _____.
5. You are not looking _____.
6. I hope all goes _____ at the dentist next week.
7. It was _____ that my mom came home early to cook dinner.
8. I did _____ on my test.
9. I am a very _____ piano player.
10. My bike still runs _____.
11. The moose stew was so _____, I ate two full plates.
12. It is not a _____ idea to walk too far from the camp.
13. I did not do a _____ job of shovelling the snow.
14. _____ hockey players get all the goals.
15. The hat goes _____ with my new coat.

Sentence #1:

Sentence #2:

