

ACTIVITIES IN THE BUSH - MATH

Making a Graph

Before going on your walk, make a grid like the one in the picture above. You can choose your own elements at the bottom of the graph (e.g.: squirrel, whiskeychan, goose, tamarack tree). On your walk, color a square every time you observe one of the elements. When you get back home, look at your graph and analyze the results.

Use your preferred language! 😊

