

ACTIVITIES IN THE BUSH - MATH

Non-Standardized Measurements

Take a piece of string that is the height of the child.
Measure different things in the bush.

With younger children speak about what is taller or shorter. With older children, speak about things being “half” or “double” your child’s height.

Do math in any language! 😊

