

ACTIVITIES IN THE BUSH - MATH

3D Structures

Take elements from the forest and explore how to build vertical 3-D structures with strong foundations, balance and leveling. Use different textures to help with grip, tie things together, etc.

With older children try to build a shelter that will resist different weather conditions.

Do it in any language! 😊

